SECTION C: Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

1. Riverton owns and developed the Property in Powhatan County, Virginia.
2. On January 25, 2007, DEQ issued the Permit to Riverton for wetland and stream impacts associated with the development of Winterfield Development. The Permit authorized permanent impacts to 358.07 linear feet of stream channel, 0.26 acres of palustrine forested wetlands (“PFO”) and temporary impacts to 26.2 linear feet of stream channel associated with Roberts Branch. The Permit required the purchase of 0.26 acres of PFO wetland credits, on-site preservation of 2.19 acres of PFO, on-site preservation of 6.12 acres of PFO buffers, on-site preservation of 3,824 linear feet of stream and associated buffers, and on-site restoration of 80 linear feet of stream channel. The Permit expired on January 24, 2012.
3. On February 5, 2007, Riverton purchased 0.26 wetland credits in accordance with the Permit.
4. On June 26, 2013, DEQ staff conducted a file review and found the following:
 - a) There was no record of documentation that any restoration or preservation in accordance with the Permit was performed.

VWP Permit WP4-05-1512 cover page states, “[p]ermanent impacts to 0.26 acres of forested wetlands will be compensated for at a 2:1 mitigation to impact ratio through: a) the purchase of 0.26 acre of PFO wetland credits from the James River Mitigation Landbank in Goochland County, Virginia; b) the on-site preservation of 2.19 acres of PFO wetlands; and c) the on-site preservation of 6.12 acres of PFO wetland buffers... . Permanent impacts to streams will be compensated for through: a) the on-site restoration of 80 linear feet of stream channel; and b) the on-site preservation of 3,824 linear feet of stream and associated buffers.”

VWP Permit WP4-05-1512 Part II.A.11 states, “[t]he final wetland or stream compensation plan(s) shall include a mechanism for protection in perpetuity of the compensation sites(s) to include all state waters within the compensation site boundary or boundaries. Such protections shall be in place within 120 days of final compensation plan approval. The restrictions, protections, or preservations, or similar instrument, shall state that no activity will be performed on the property in any area designated as a compensation area with the exception of maintenance or corrective action measures authorized by the board. Unless specifically authorized by the board through the issuance of a VWP individual or general permit, or waiver thereof, this restriction applies to ditching, land clearing or the discharge of dredge or fill material. Such instrument shall contain the specific phrase "ditching, land clearing or discharge of dredge or fill material" in the limitations placed on the use of these areas. The protective instrument shall be recorded in the chain of title to the property, or an equivalent instrument for government-owned lands. Proof of recordation shall be submitted within 120 days of plat approval."

VWP Permit WP4-05-1512 Part II. A.12 states, "[a]ll work in impact areas shall cease if compensation site construction has not commenced within 180 days of commencement of project construction, unless otherwise authorized by the board."

- b) There was no record of construction monitoring reports submitted in association with the permitted activities. Construction and associated wetland impacts had begun at the Property.

VWP Permit WP4-05-1512, Part II.D.1 states, "[c]onstruction activities authorized by this permit that are within impact areas shall be monitored and documented. The monitoring shall document the pre-construction conditions, activities during construction, and post-construction conditions." Parts II.D.1-3 describe the methods and schedule of photographic monitoring that should be included in the reports.

VWP Permit WP4-05-1512, Part II. E.3 states [c]onstruction monitoring reports shall be submitted to DEQ not later than the 10th day of the month following the month in which the monitoring event specified in Part II.D takes place, unless otherwise specified below."

5. Va. Code §62.1-44.15:20 (A) states, "[e]xcept in compliance with an individual or general Virginia Water Protection Permit issued in accordance with this article, it shall be unlawful to: 1. Excavate in a wetland; 2. On or after October 1, 2001, conduct the following in a wetland: a. New activities to cause draining that significantly alters or degrades existing wetland acreage or functions; b. Filling or dumping; c. Permanent flooding or impounding; or d. New activities that cause significant alteration or degradation of existing wetland acreage or functions; or 3. Alter the physical, chemical, or biological properties of state waters and make them detrimental to the public health, animal or aquatic life, or to the uses of such waters for domestic or industrial consumption, or for recreation, or for other uses unless authorized by a certificate issued by the Board."
6. 9 VAC 25-210-50 (A) states, "[e]xcept in compliance with a VWP permit, unless the activity is otherwise exempted or excluded, no person shall dredge, fill or discharge any pollutant into, or adjacent to surface waters, withdraw surface water, otherwise alter the physical, chemical or biological properties of surface waters and make them detrimental to the public health, or to animal or aquatic life, or to the uses of such waters for domestic or industrial consumption, or for recreation, or for other uses; excavate in wetlands or on or after October 1, 2001, conduct the following activities in a wetland: 1. New activities to cause draining that significantly alters or degrades existing wetland acreage or functions; 2. Filling or dumping; 3. Permanent flooding or impounding; or 4. New activities that cause significant alteration or degradation of existing wetland acreage or functions.”

7. VWP Permit WP4-05-1512 Part III.Q states, “[e]xcept in compliance with this VWP general permit, it shall be unlawful for the permittee to: 1. Discharge into state waters sewage, industrial wastes, other wastes, or any noxious or deleterious substances; 2. Excavate in a wetland; 3. Otherwise alter the physical, chemical, or biological properties of state waters and make them detrimental to the public health, to animal or aquatic life, to the uses of such waters for domestic or industrial consumption, for recreation, or for other uses; or 4. On and after October 1, 2001, conduct the following activities in a wetland: a. New activities to cause draining that significantly alters or degrades existing wetland acreage or functions; b. Filling or dumping; c. Permanent flooding or impounding; or d. New activities that cause significant alteration or degradation of existing wetland acreage or functions.”
8. On August 26, 2013, DEQ issued NOV No. 13-08-PRO-701 for the violations described in paragraph C (4) above.
9. On November 12, 2013, DEQ staff met with representatives of Riverton to discuss the violations.
10. On August 15, 2014, DEQ staff met with representatives of Riverton to discuss the impacts taken to date and compensation required. It was discussed that 120 linear feet of stream channel impacts had been taken under the Permit and had not been mitigated.
11. On December 9, 2014, and December 10, 2014, DEQ staff did a site visit at the Property and determined 0.10 acre of additional wetland impacts had been taken under the Permit. DEQ staff also found 137 linear feet of additional stream impacts had been taken under the Permit, and as a result, the total stream impacts that had not been mitigated for was 258 linear feet of stream channel. Thus, Riverton has 0.16 acre of wetland credits left to purchase and 258 linear feet of stream credits to purchase.
12. Based on the results of the site inspections, review of the permit file and meetings, the Board concludes that Riverton has violated the Permit conditions listed above, Va. Code § 62.1-44.15:20(A) and 9 VAC 25-210-50(A) as described above.
13. In order for Riverton to return to compliance, DEQ staff and representatives of Riverton have agreed to the Schedule of Compliance, which is incorporated as Appendix A of this Order.
