

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This report is prepared by the Virginia Department Environmental Quality (DEQ), with significant contributions from the Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) and the Virginia Department of Health (VDH). The information presented here is the result of long-term, extensive collaboration among state environmental and public health staff, federal agencies, inter-state partnership programs, academic institutions, local municipalities, involved citizens, and the private sector. The level of effort required to produce this report cannot be overstated.

DEQ's Water Division has over 60 staff dedicated to the monitoring and assessment of the Commonwealth's waters. They work under the esteemed leadership of the agency's director David K. Paylor and division director Melanie D. Davenport. Monitoring and assessment staff are located in seven offices located across Virginia: Central Office (Richmond), Piedmont Regional Office (Glen Allen), Valley Regional Office (Harrisonburg), Northern Regional Office (Woodbridge), Tidewater Regional Office (Virginia Beach), Blue Ridge Regional Office (Roanoke and Lynchburg), and Southwest Regional Office (Abingdon).

Monitoring and assessment staff: Mark Alling, Greg Anderson, Cleo Baker, James Beckley, Kristie Britt, Nathan Bowman, Richard Browder, Gregory Brown, Arthur Butt, Jennifer Carlson, Matthew Carter, Martha Chapman, Jeanne Classen, James Cornett, Eddy Cumbow, Mary Dail, Gabriel Darkwah, George Devlin, Roger Everton, Teresa Frazier, Amanda Gray, Randy Gunn, Wick Harlan, Scott Hasinger, Janine Howard, Kelly Hazlegrove, Nathaniel Jenkins, Donald Kain, John Kennedy, Jason Hill, Phillip Hurst, Michael Hutchison, Cindy Johnson, Emma Jones, William Isenberg, Mike McLeod, Drew Miller, Dinah Oliver, Jennifer Palmore, Jared Purnhagen, Christopher Quasney, Stewart Phipps, Tish Robertson, Cory Routh, Louis Seivard, William Shanabruch, Michael Shaver, James Shiflet, Rebecca Shoemaker, Antone Silvia, Warren Smigo, Donald Smith, Jeffrey Sneed, Lanny Sparks, Royce Steiner, Brett Stern, Roger Stewart, Jeff Talbott, Bryant Thomas, Stuart Torbeck, Robert Turner, William VanWart, Kelley West, Lawrence Willis, and Kristy Woodall.

Other DEQ staff who have contributed to this report are Sandra Mueller, Rick Hill, Mary Ann Massie, Brenda Winn, Virginia Witmer, Burton Tuxford, Michelle Henicheck, Steve Raney, and Sharon Baxter. Contributing authors from non-DEQ agencies: Karl Huber (DCR) and Matthew Skiljo (VDH).

Most of the sample analysis that renders this report possible is performed by the Virginia Department of Consolidated Laboratory Services.

DEQ appreciates the data provided by its community partners such as Virginia Save Our Streams, the Alliance for the Chesapeake Bay, and StreamWatch. Academic institutions such as Longwood University, Virginia Commonwealth University, the Virginia Institute of Marine Science, and Old Dominion University are also important components of DEQ's non-agency monitoring network.

Lastly, the United States Environmental Protection Agency provides guidance and oversight for this report and the activities required to produce it. Other federal agencies and inter-state programs that work in conjunction with DEQ include the United States Geological Survey, National Park Service, United States Fish and Wildlife Service, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and the Federal-Interstate Chesapeake Bay Program.
